PRIVACY POLICY — IBUSHI

Privacy Policy on Personal Data Processing

IBUSHI

1. General Provisions

This Privacy Policy on personal data processing is prepared in accordance with applicable data protection regulations and defines the procedure for processing personal data and measures taken by IBUSHI (“Operator”) to ensure personal data security.

The Operator considers the protection of human rights and freedoms during personal data processing as its highest priority, including protection of the right to privacy, personal and family confidentiality.

This Policy applies to all information that the Operator may receive about visitors of the website.

---

2. Key Terms Used in This Policy

Personal data — any information relating directly or indirectly to an identified or identifiable user.

Processing of personal data — any action performed with personal data, including collection, storage, use, transfer, and deletion.

Operator — IBUSHI, independently determining purposes and means of personal data processing.

User — any visitor of the website.

(остальные термины сокращены до базовых, без перегруза как в оригинале)

---

3. Purpose of Data Processing

IBUSHI processes personal data for the purpose of:

- communicating with users

- sending informational emails
- responding to requests

---

4. Personal Data Processed

We may process the following data:

- email address
- phone number
- name
- form submission data

---

5. Legal Basis

We process personal data based on:

- user consent
- contracts with the user
- legal obligations

---

6. Data Processing

We may perform the following operations:

- collection
- storage
- use
- deletion

---

7. Data Protection

IBUSHI takes necessary organizational and technical measures to protect personal data from unauthorized access or disclosure.

---

8. Third Parties

Personal data may be processed by third-party services (e.g. hosting, email services) in accordance with their own policies.

---

9. User Rights

Users have the right to:

- access their data
- request correction or deletion
- withdraw consent

---

10. Contact

Email: info@ibushi.com